DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The limitation "rate manager" does not exist in claim 1.

Claims 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 16 and 17 are method claims but they are dependent on apparatus claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 15, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by May et al (USP 6,215,423).

Regarding claims 1, 15, and 20, May discloses a digital to analog converter that teaches a digital processing portion (208) configured to receive an input digital audio data (202) and timing information (204) represent of a time base of input sample rate and digitally process the digital audio data and system timing data to produce serialized output data (219) and an analog processing portion (216) configured to convert the serialized data to an analog format. The digital to analog convert taught by May having digital processing portion operates in accordance with at least one clock having a corresponding clock rate(210) and at least one corresponding clock rates is asynchronous with the input sample rate (see col. 2, lines 47-67; col. 3; and col. 4, lines 1-32).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-3, 5-14, and 18-19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but they would be considered for allowable if they are rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The features of objected claims are not taught or suggested in the prior art.

Cited References

The cited references relate to claimed subject matter. USP 6,642,876 discloses a system and a method for digital to analog converter that the clock rates is asynchronous with the input sample rate.
